

Would you like to study internationally?

- Challenges for Child and Family Services –study course offers a unique opportunity to delve into current challenges in child and family services in an international learning environment.
- During the intensive week, you will get to create meaningful connections with students and experts from different backgrounds – and expand your competence in a way that feels impactful and stays with you!

- Come and hear more about the intensive week at a virtual information session on Thursday 5 February at 16:30–17:30
<https://lut.zoom.us/j/63663585160?pwd=ewSF3LifULJEwzeea3XlGyf4b6R03G.1>
- Locations and dates: 18–20 May 2026 Lahti, 21–22 May 2026 Helsinki
- Participating HEIs: LAB, Hochschule Neubrandenburg (DE), EHB Berlin (DE) ja ELTE Budapest (HU)
- Theme of the week: Inclusion and diversity
- Virtual kick-off meeting: 28 April 2026 at 18:00–19:30
- Extent: 5 ECTS
- For whom: All Master's degree students of the wellbeing unit, but depending on availability also Master's degree students from other fields
- Registration: Peppi, course code ST00BO33-3008 Challenges for Child and Family Services 5 ECTS
- Registration closes: 15 February 2026
- Teachers: Juha Roslakka juha.roslakka@lab.fi ja Marika Nortta marika.nortta@lab.fi

If you long for internationality, inspiration, and a new kind of approach to studying, this course is for you!